LYNCHED. MURDERERS

DEATH AT THE HANDS OF A MOB. Swung Up and Riddled with Bullets-Alleged Cause of the Work-One

Confession.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 18.-[Special.]-The vicinity of the little village of Gaines. ville, in Prince William county, several miles from Manassas, on the Manassas branch railroad, was the scene of a terrible tragedy this morning at 3 o'clock, the occasion being the hanging and shooting to death by a mob of sixty masked men of Joseph Dye and Lee Hefflin, the convicted murderers of Mrs. Kines and her three children on the night of November 9th last.

HISTORY OF THE CASE,

On December 28th the trial took place and On December 28th the trial took place and both men were found guity and sentenced to be hanged to-day, March 18th. Bye's counsel secured a writ of error from the court of appeals, and subsequently Governor McKinney granted a respite for Heffin until the final result of Dye's case on appeal for a new trial. This action caused a great deal of dissatisfaction among the populace in the county, and as the day set for the execution drew near threats were made that the verdict of the jury and the sentence of the court should be executed not withstanding the action of the court of appeals and the Governor. court of appeals and the Governor.

EFFORT TO PREVENT THE LYNCHING, In the early hours of last night J. T. Jef-freys, the Commonwealth's attorney. Jearned that an unusual number of men were entering that an unusual number of men were entering the town of Warrenton on horseback and that their object was to put their threats into ex-ecution, to take the condemned men from jail and hang them. Sending for the jailor and dis deputies he instructed them to secretly re-move the two condemned prisoners from jail and convey them to Gainesville, a distance of sixteen miles, in a warpe and there await to sixteen miles, in a wagon and there await the morning train to Alexandria and take the prisoners on there and place them in jail. THE PRISONERS OVERTAKEN.

About midnight the mob, learning that the About midnight the mob, learning that the prisoners had been removed, and also being informed the route taken and destination, followed and about 3 o'clock overtook the wagon containing the two condemned men, and a guard of four. The prisoners were taken from the guard without resistance, and ropes being placed around their necks they were taken about one hundred yards from the Warrenton pike to separate trees. The two men begged and plead for their lives to be spared protesting their innocence, but were told that they must die, and were ordered to confess the crime. ONLY ONE CONFESSED.

ONLY ONE CONFISSED.

Dye, weeping and begging for his life, confessed the crime, but said he was forced to commit it. He was then strung up and his body riddled with bullets. Heilin was then asked to confess, but he refused to say anything and soon received the same fate of his companion in crime. This morning an inquest was held and the verdiet was that the two men came to their deaths by hanging and pistol or gunshot wounds at the hands of persons unknown to the jury. The bodies were cut down and removed to Gainesville to await the claims of their respective families.

THE LENGHING CONDEMNED.

THE LYNGHING CONDEMNED. It is said that the people of the neighborhood where the tragedy occurred greatly condemned the act, as the men had been tried, convicted and sentenced to death, and there no reason to suspect that they would escape the penalty.

Some Farm Notes from Buckingham.

GRAVEL HILL, BUCKINGHAM COUNTY, VA.,
March 18.—[Special.]—Farmers in this section are getting much better prices for their tobacco than for several years past, particularly when it is in good keeping order, and fortunately for them they have nearly 50 per cent, more than usual for market. Nearly all the planters in this vicinity sell in Farmyille. There is a good deal of plant land to prepare yet, and are somewhat behind from bad weather and lack of labor.

The acreage of wheat seeded in this section is over the usual quantity, but is looking badly, much worse than usual, even on im-proved lots. It will have to be a good spring proved lots. It will have to be a good spring for wheat to bring it up to only a medium yield.

Winter cats are looking well, but the acreage is small.

Not more than half the average quantity of ice is housed, as the freezes have been of unusually short duration.

DEMOCRACY VFRSUS ATHIRD PARTY.

The Fight on in Reality-Bold Burglars Caught_A Raleigh Newspaper Changes Hands-North State News.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 18.-[Special.]-News is received that the Democracy of the western part of the State have boldly thrown down the gauntlet to the Third party leaders in the State. For some time past Marion Butler, president of the Alliance, and Colonel Harry Skinner, who claimed to be author of the sub-Treasury bill, have been making addresses in different parts of the State. They are announced to speak to-morrow at Statesville and the Democrats of that section have issued a call for a grand Democratic rally in opposition to take place at the same time.

In this address they say:

"These gentlemen and their coadjutors are understood to be now at work preparing to capture the Democratic conventions this year for the purpose of laying down a platform equivalent to that of the Third party and nominating candidates in sympathy there. equivalent to that of the third party and nominating candidates in sympathy therewith, thus really perverting the Democratic party into the Third party in all except the name. Hon. W. M. Roblens, W. D. Turner, Esq., and others will speak. Those of us who are true to the old, safe and sound Democratic faith, must awake, and bestir ourselves to faith must awake and bestir ourselves to checkmate this cunning and dangerous game." This is the first positive movement that has yet been made in the State to check the Third party movement and is regarded as a bold A special from Washington, N. C., says two bold burglars, who have been committing a series of burglaries there for a week past, have at last been captured. They proved to be C. C. Collier and A. W. Barnes, both of whom lived in town. They were caught while rifling the store of J. T. Lupton.

Governor Holt to-day appointed Dr. R. H. Lewis, of this city, as a delegate to represent this State at the National Food and Dairy Congress, which meets at Washington, D. C., March 31st. It is learned this evening on reliable author-
